3. Facilitate – Teachers become facilitators and counselors/mentors.
4. Evaluate – Each student must create their own portfolio in which to collect their work/progress; each portfolio becomes a part of the "Evaluation/Review Process". Instead of conferences/report cards they now engage in Evaluations/Review much like in the real world. The grading system is disbanded and weights are assigned to goals. Measurement is contingent on the evaluations factors to be established by the School Board.
